Let Me Tell You Something

I delivered a suit last week to a man that was a skeptic in every suns of the word.

When he first came in (ten days prior), he looked ever a bunch of fabrics, and finally selecting one, asked what a suit off it would cost.

I told him 25.

He said I couldn't give him a decent jeb at that price, and that he guessed ne'd not run the take of having to take a "cheap" job (those were the words he used.)

I told him that if the suit wasn't right in every respect he wouldn't syan he asked to take it. I took him the tailors at work. He then let us take his measure.

He came fur the suit last Saturday, examined it inside and out, and finally put it on—trousers and all.

The only comment he made was, "How much will you charge me for on everyonat?"

I took his order.

There are a whole lot of fellows in Omaha just like that man. You saffer from short-sighted prejudices.

If you'll drop in your can be ensily cured, and the operation lan't painful.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 23.-With Outfielder Matty McIntyre in the role of manager, a dozen members of the Detroit American league team left here tonight for Havans, Cuba, to meet two Cuban ball teams in a series of twelve games. The American league champions will measure their ability with the Havanas or "Reds" and the Almandaras or "Blues" of Hayans. Although his team will be without use the services of Outfielders Cobb and Crawford, whose hitting played such a prominent part in the wirning of the American league pennant by the local club, Manager
